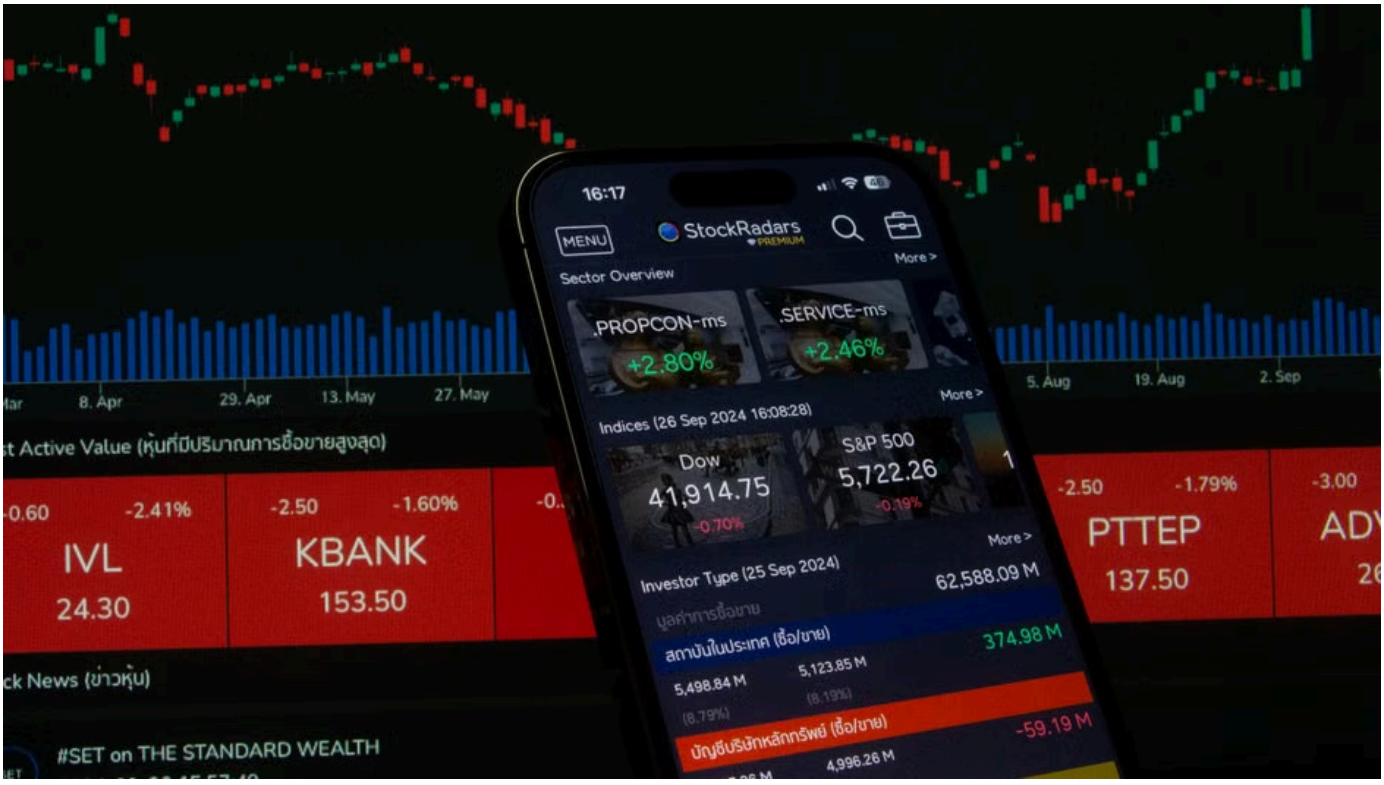
Wall Street Skyrockets! Dow Jumps 1,100 Points – Oil Crash Fuels a Market Frenzy While Nvidia Takes a Dive

Image 1 (Real):

Original Image

Image 2 (Pexels):



Summary:

US stocks surged on Monday after oil prices fell, easing inflation concerns. The S&P 500 rose over 2% and the Dow jumped 1,100 points. Nvidia fell amid uncertainty over CEO Jensen Huang's future. Analysts say the prior market dip was over-blown and eyes now turn to upcoming inflation data for Fed cues.

Detailed analysis:

The sharp rally shows how commodity price moves can instantly revive equity sentiment. For exam takers, note the link between oil-price-driven inflation expectations and the Fed's policy stance – a recurring theme in macro-economics questions.
