

Modi Beats Nehru: India's PM Sets Unprecedented Record!

Image 1 (Real):

 Original Image

Image 2 (Pexels):

Summary:

Prime Minister Narendra Modi etched his name into India's political history books on Tuesday, surpassing Jawaharlal Nehru's record to become the country's longest-serving elected Prime Minister.

Detailed analysis:

The milestone underscores the durability of the BJP's political dominance and offers a case study in leadership longevity, coalition management, and electoral strategy—key topics for Polity and Governance sections of the UPSC syllabus. It also raises questions about institutional checks, policy continuity, and the impact of a prolonged tenure on democratic health.

India's Nuclear Arsenal Swells: New Warheads Boost Deterrence!

Image 1 (Real):

 Original Image

Image 2 (Pexels):

Summary:

Russia and the United States continue to dominate the global nuclear order by a wide margin. Russia holds an estimated 4,400 nuclear warheads, followed by the US with 3,700.

Detailed analysis:

An expansion of India's nuclear stockpile has strategic implications for its deterrence posture, nuclear doctrine (no first use), and regional security dynamics with Pakistan and China. Aspirants should link this to the 'Nuclear Weapon State' criteria under the NPT, India's strategic autonomy, and its impact on defence policy and foreign relations.
