Summary:

Commerce Minister Piyush Goyal is confident the 2026-27 Union Budget will be a good one. Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman will present her ninth budget on February 1. The budget aims to sustain growth and maintain fiscal discipline. It will address global trade frictions and domestic economic pressures. This budget presentation is a historic first for India.

Detailed analysis:

The statement signals political confidence and hints at continuity in fiscal prudence. Aspirants should connect this to themes of fiscal consolidation, growth-oriented spending, and managing external shocks.

Summary:

India's export strategy is shifting beyond its dependence on the US, with fresh FTAs across Europe, the UK, Middle East and Oceania. The EU deal alone opens tariff-free access for 99% of Indian goods. This diversification strengthens India's trade resilience and reduces vulnerabilities tied to geopolitical uncertainty.

Detailed analysis:

Important for exam questions on trade policy: diversification reduces exposure to bilateral risks and can boost export volumes. Note the EU-India FTA as a flagship example of strategic economic diplomacy.

Image 2 (Pexels):

Summary:

India's trade pact with the European Union is set to significantly boost exports. The agreement, expected this year, will grant 99 percent of Indian goods duty-free access to Europe. This move is projected to double India's exports to the EU within five years. Businesses are encouraged to expand and capitalize on this opportunity.

Detailed analysis:

The EU-India FTA is a cornerstone of the government's export-push agenda. Candidates should remember the projected 2× export growth and its implication for balance-of-payments and sectoral expansion.
