Summary:

Environment Minister Bhupender Yadav told reporters in the Sundarban Tiger Reserve that the Supreme Court-approved definition will bring more than 90% of the Aravalli region under “protected area”

Detailed analysis:

Critical for exam preparation as it deals with the legal and policy framework for protected areas, a frequent UPSC topic. Understanding the Supreme Court-approved definition and its impact on mining, conservation, and inter-state water disputes is essential for answering questions on environmental jurisprudence and sustainable development.
