No Money Blues: Govt Vows Mega Infra Spending Despite Fiscal Squeeze

Image 1 (Real):

 Original Image

Image 2 (Pexels):

Summary:

The government will maintain its focus on infrastructure development through increased capital expenditure, despite fiscal constraints and global economic uncertainty. Expenditure Secretary V. V. Laxmi dismissed concerns from states regarding the discontinuation of revenue deficit grants, emphasizing the need for states to manage their own expenditure. The Centre has enhanced funding for state-level capital investment schemes to encourage public investment-led growth.

Detailed analysis:

Infrastructure capex remains a fiscal priority to sustain aggregate demand, especially when revenue receipts are under pressure. For exam prep, remember that capex has a higher multiplier than consumption and is a key lever in the government's growth-oriented agenda, influencing employment, rural development, and the balance of payments.

₹80,000 cr Disinvestment Goal: Ambitious Yet Within Reach, Says DIPAM Chief

Image 1 (Real):

 Original Image

Image 2 (Pexels):

Summary:

The government aims to raise ₹80,000 crore through disinvestment and asset monetisation in FY27. DIPAM secretary Arunish Chawla expressed confidence in meeting this ambitious target. Plans are underway to unlock value from land assets of state-run firms by establishing dedicated real estate investment trusts. Industry feedback is also being sought for stake dilution in public sector companies.

Detailed analysis:

Disinvestment is a fiscal consolidation tool that reduces the fiscal deficit while widening share-holding patterns. For exam takers, note the mechanisms (strategic sale, minority stake, REITs) and how they tie into the broader 'Asset Monetisation' drive to fund the fiscal gap without raising taxes.

Summary:

Power Grid shares rose sharply, extending their two-day rally after the PSU raised its FY26 capex and capitalisation guidance. Strong Q3 results, higher government investment plans, and bullish technical indicators have boosted investor sentiment, with the stock trading above key moving averages and showing further upside potential.

Detailed analysis:

A higher capex outlook for Power Grid reflects the government's push for transmission infrastructure, crucial for renewable integration and overall economic growth. For competitive exams, link this to the role of state-run utilities in achieving energy security and the impact of such guidance on sovereign and corporate bond yields.

Image 2 (Pexels):

Summary:

India's manufacturing activity saw a slight rebound in January, driven by increased new orders and output, though business confidence dipped to a three-and-a-half-year low. While consumer goods led the growth, capital goods lagged, and future output expectations weakened despite buoyant domestic demand and moderate international orders.

Detailed analysis:

The PMI-type data signals a tentative recovery in the manufacturing sector, an early indicator for GDP revisions. Aspirants should note the divergence between current-month output and forward-looking sentiment, a pattern often reflected in monetary-policy deliberations.

Image 2 (Pexels):

Summary:

Under no circumstance, neither people nor light should enter mass nesting sites as endangered turtles get distracted by it, says B.C. Choudhary, a researcher on turtles

Detailed analysis:

The article flags a potential conflict between new budget provisions and the protection of critical turtle nesting beaches. Candidates should note the need for policy-level safeguards for marine wildlife, the role of anthropogenic pressures, and the relevance of the Coastal Regulation Zone (CRZ) guidelines in exam questions on biodiversity conservation.

Wetlands to Be Crowned National Treasure!

Image 1 (Real):

 Original Image

Image 2 (Pexels):

Summary:

There is a need to shift the focus from 'projects' to programmes and 'beautification' to ecological functionality, and ensure watershed-scale governance

Detailed analysis:

Highlights a paradigm shift from piecemeal projects to ecosystem-based programmes. Aspirants should link this to the National Wetland Conservation Programme, the concept of public goods in environmental economics, and the importance of integrated watershed management for UPSC and state-level exams.

Image 2 (Pexels):

Summary:

Characterised by its sandy-brown plumage, partial eye mask and reddish tail, the Isabelline shrike breeds in Mongolia and China and migrates to North India, Pakistan and Africa during winter

Detailed analysis:

A rare sighting underscores migratory routes and habitat connectivity. Candidates should remember migratory bird categories, the role of the Indian Migratory Bird Regulation (1972), and how such records aid in assessing climate-induced range shifts.

Flamingos Flock Back, Declaring Kolleru Wetland's Comeback!

Image 1 (Real):

 Original Image

Image 2 (Pexels):

Summary:

According to A.P. Forest department officials, 30 to 40 key bird species, identified as important indicators of wetland health, are present across Kolleru landscape

Detailed analysis:

Flamingos as indicator species illustrate wetland health recovery, aligning with Ramsar site criteria. Useful for topics on wetland management, indicator species, and the impact of conservation measures in Indian exam syllabi.
