Summary:

Indian IT stocks witnessed a sharp rise on Wednesday as a global anti-AI trade drove investors toward safer technology names. Analysts say fading enthusiasm for AI stocks could boost FPI flows into India, while Infosys also drew attention ahead of its Rs 18,000-crore share buyback opening Thursday.

Detailed analysis:

Exam focus: The rally shows sensitivity of Indian IT to global sentiment shifts. FPI inflows and buyback announcements are pivotal catalysts for short-term price moves.
