Summary:

Investor flows are diverging, says Sanjay Shah of Prudent Corporate. While SIPs continue to channel steady money into mid- and smallcaps, fresh allocations are moving toward hybrid, multi-asset, and large-and-midcap funds. New AMCs, NFOs, and SEBI incentives are driving added traction.

Detailed analysis:

Understanding fund flow trends helps answer questions on financial market behavior and regulatory influence. SEBI incentives and product innovation are key drivers of asset-allocation shifts.
